

COMPETITIONS

TYPE competition LOCATION bioggio, switzerland ARCHITECT stefano larotonda WITH tobia valli, alessandro martinelli KEY ELEMENTS the project is defined as a unique high in which the space of a basement floor is derived. the building is made up of three levels the lowest of which is buried. the c-shape of the plant creates an intimate and glazed interior that opens towards the green; the external façade is characterized by a porch that connects the various levels and becomes the park's limit. the project pays particular attention to the lifestyle of the elderly in a flat-rate system designed to guarantee different levels of intimacy IMAGE CREDITS vincenzo tuccillo.

