

TYPE renovation LOCATION cantù, italy ARCHITECT stefano larotonda WITH manuel bellagamba FOR a private client KEY ELEMENTS given the history of the property and its strategic position in the interior design proposal, the original features of the building have been preserved and highlighted. the openings in the three spaces suggest an interesting relationship with the city around because they allow entry to the bar from different fronts, making it permeable to streams becoming a kind of continuation of the public space. the project proposal provides for a counter positioned in the middle of the space, thus suggesting a strong interaction between people and giving a perception of the larger space. IMAGE CREDITS pietro torricini

