

COMPETITIONS

TYPE interiors LOCATION chiasso, switzerland ARCHITECT stefano larotonda WITH manuel bellagamba, matteo soldati, matteo valli, sofia micicchè, tommaso arnaboldi FOR the municipality of chiasso KEY ELEMENTS for three consecutive years, were curated the staging of the jazz festival's spaces. according to the themes of the jazz fair provided by the organizer, were developed spatial concepts of lights, furniture and different atmospheres. environment with big suspended elements which emanate lights and sounds, brights bodies which directs the space and outlines of musicians scattered through the city. the projects concern the definition of a field of entrance with a cash register, a space assigned to bar/restaurant and a dj set and the staging of the concert hall. in parallel with the development of the inner spaces, it seek to establish a dialogue with the ex-industrial context, now cultural city center, widening the project to the public space.

